BIG BOLD SOUND

2024 SEASON

Wesfarmers Arts
Principal Partner

West Australian Symphony Orchestra respectfully acknowledges the Traditional Custodians and Elders of Country throughout Western Australia, and the Whadjuk Noongar people on whose lands we work and share music.

OUR SEASON

2024 is set to be a momentous year for WASO. This season features iconic works, from Beethoven's Eroica to music from Wagner's Ring, Vivaldi's Gloria to Mozart's Requiem, with something to excite every music-lover.

One of the great joys of my time with WASO has been our performances of Mahler's symphonies, and this year we bring you his mighty Eighth - the "Symphony of a Thousand". Rarely performed due to the scale of forces required, this gala event is the highlight of the season.

With the Perth Concert Hall redevelopment scheduled to commence late in the year, we've created a new four-concert series, Spring Fest, to bring you a full season of exceptional music. This series features some fantastic guests performing music by Mozart and Brahms, and I look forward to conducting some of my favourite works in the final concert. Spring Fest is a great addition to our season - don't miss it.

I am delighted to continue my work with this wonderful orchestra in 2024, and I look forward to welcoming you to our big, bold season.

WELCOME TO THE WEST

Hon. Tony Burke MP Federal Minister for the Arts

Music is for everyone, and Australian musicians are providing a thrilling soundtrack to our lives.

The Federal Government is proud to support WASO through the National Performing Arts Partnership Framework of Creative Australia. WASO continues to delight diverse audiences with high quality performances and provide an important contribution to our national identity through music.

In 2023, the Albanese Labor Government launched the National Cultural Policy Revive. At the heart of the policy is the goal to ensure there is a place for every story, and a story for every place. I'm particularly excited to see a commitment to the celebration of local voices and the commissioning of new works from West Australian composers James Ledger, Olivia Davies and Lachlan Skipworth.

I wish the WASO community all the best for their upcoming season.

Hon. Roger Cook MLA Premier of Western Australia

WASO is a crucial part of Western Australia's arts landscape, bringing the joy of music to our entire community and creating opportunities for the artists of tomorrow.

We all know the thrill of experiencing great live music in a great venue. WASO's 2024 season provides a shining example of Perth Concert Hall's intimacy and famous acoustics with new works and classics, plus a fresh Spring Festival celebrating two master composers as redevelopment works commence at the end of the year.

My Government is proud to support the future of the Perth Concert Hall by investing $134 million to redevelop this iconic and world-renowned venue. This project will revitalise the precinct, creating a true home for WASO and – importantly – improving your concert experience.

The State Government is proud to support WASO in delivering performances and community programs across WA.

Enjoy the sensational music in the 2024 season ahead.

Richard Goyder AO WASO Chair

Welcome to our 2024 season. On behalf of WASO, I extend our gratitude to the Western Australian and Federal Governments for their support of WASO through Creative Australia, enabling big and bold orchestral experiences to reach across WA.

In the last 10 years, the sound of your State Orchestra has been elevated through strong artistic leadership and growth. The outcomes of this development will be showcased in one of the most ambitious works to date; the first West Australian performances of Mahler's "Symphony of a Thousand". Asher Fisch will lead this major production as he becomes WASO's longest serving Principal Conductor in 2024.

This season spans classical masterpieces, contemporary works, and ground-breaking collaborations. And as we approach the exciting redevelopment of Perth Concert Hall, scheduled for the end of the year, we embark on a new journey in spring.

Every experience with WASO is defined by artistry and passion, made possible with the support of our partners, including Principal Partner Wesfarmers Arts; Giving Circle donors; subscribers and wider community of supporters. Thank you, and enjoy the season.

Aaron WYATT The Coming Dawn
Sergei RACHMANINOV Piano Concerto No.3
Richard STRAUSS Ein Heldenleben

Asher Fisch conductor
Yeol Eum Son piano (pictured)
Aaron Wyatt conductor
Richard Walley didgeridoo

In a breathtaking display of talent, world-renowned pianist Yeol Eum Son makes her WASO debut with Rachmaninov's demanding Third Piano Concerto.

Composed at the peak of his creativity, Strauss' sumptuous tone poem depicts the full richness of a heroic life – swaggering and grandiose, exuberantly playful and tender.

Evoking the first flickers of dawn and reflecting the starkness and beauty of the Australian landscape, our Masters series opens with a moving celebration of Country composed and conducted by Noongar musician, Aaron Wyatt.

Dmitri SHOSTAKOVICH Symphony No.12 The Year 1917

Alpesh Chauhan conductor

Celebrated British conductor Alpesh Chauhan and WASO's beloved Concertmaster Laurence Jackson are a match made in heaven for this evening of extraordinary music.

Jackson brings poise and passion to the noble eloquence and poetic beauty of Elgar's autumnal masterpiece - the greatest of all English violin concertos.

Then Chauhan leads WASO's first performance of Shostakovich's Twelfth Symphony, a dramatic work that is vivid, urgent and hugely powerful.

4	5	6	7	6.30pm Discover 7.30pm

Dmitri SHOSTAKOVICH Violin Concerto No.1
Ludwig van BEETHOVEN Symphony No.3 Eroica

Beethoven's Third Symphony stands as the ultimate testament to human resilience, ambition and inventiveness. A triumph of artistic will over adversity, it redefined the symphony itself, and its heroic narrative and raw power changed music forever.

Acclaimed Italian violinist Francesca Dego makes her WASO debut with Shostakovich's emotionally charged Violin Concerto No.1, a work in which he transformed oppression into profound and beautiful music.

Join us the Thursday before the concert for a unique insight into Eroica at our Discover: Beethoven concert with Asher Fisch.

Felix MENDELSSOHN The Hebrides
Holly HARRISON Saxophone Concerto (World Premiere)
Hector BERLIOZ Symphonie fantastique

Matthew Styles saxophone

A fantastical journey of imagination, Berlioz's music vividly depicts his dreams and visions, his torment and euphoria. Berlioz's Symphonie fantastique is an epic orchestral tour de force, a stunning musical self-portrait of obsessive passion for an unrequited love.

We open with Mendelssohn's overture, The Hebrides. Ride the waves of the Atlantic in this dark and brooding work, as Mendelssohn's music envelops you in the might of mother nature. Perth saxophonist Matthew Styles takes centre stage as he premieres Holly Harrison's new Saxophone Concerto.

Smetana's spirited overture sets the scene for celebration, as one of WASO's favourite guests, Alban Gerhardt, makes his much-anticipated return with Dvořák's ever-popular Cello Concerto. Inspired by the composer's homesick longings and a tragic love, this cornerstone of the repertoire demands the utmost emotional commitment and prowess from its soloist.

With his Fourth Symphony, Tchaikovsky transformed his personal battle with fate into a potent and powerful work of art. Swirling between darkness and light, anguish and hope, Tchaikovsky's Symphony ultimately triumphs to deliver a joyous finale of life-affirming energy.

Alexander Gavrylyuk piano

Dalia Stasevska is one of the world's most in-demand conductors, and she makes her much-anticipated WASO debut with a concert of Nordic masterpieces.

Opening with Finnish composer Outi Tarkiainen's earth-shattering exploration of life and love, Alexander Gavrylyuk then performs Grieg's beloved Piano Concerto. Acclaimed at its premiere, it established Grieg's reputation as the musical voice of his nation.

Evoking the spirit of Dalia Stasevska's own Finnish homeland, the majestic beauty of Sibelius' Symphony No.5 has ensured its place in the musical canon.

OUR STORY

From the centre of Perth to the furthest corners of the state, we have provided the soundtrack to life in WA since 1928.

As the State Orchestra, Perth's first and finest, WASO is the largest employer of performing artists in Western Australia and reaches more than two million people with musical experiences each year on stage, in our community, and online.

From concert halls to classrooms, hospitals to aged care, we bring joy, inspire learning, and nurture participation in our community, because everybody deserves the opportunity to experience live music.

MUSIC EDUCATION FOR SCHOOLS AND BEYOND

WASO delivers educational music experiences to students of all ages, from tertiary level right down to our youngest music-lovers in pre-school.

University students studying classical music have the opportunity to receive mentoring from side-by-side performances with WASO musicians, through industry-leading partnerships with the Australian National Academy of Music (ANAM) and UWA Conservatorium of Music. Outside of the university setting, WASO's relationship with the Western Australian Youth Orchestra (WAYO) continues developing the next generation of the State's musical talent.

Schools can experience WASO on the mainstage through Morning Symphony performances and our popular Education Concerts, and for those wanting even more insight into the world of the orchestra, our Open Rehearsals give a behind-the-scenes look at how a performance comes together.

Our new Secondary Schools Concert now includes curriculum links for students in Year 9-12 studying general music programs, as well as bespoke content and analysis for ATAR students.

Our flagship primary school music education program Crescendo continues to deliver music lessons to over 400 students annually. This exceptional program begins its ninth year of commitment to music education in WA in 2024.

Crescendo is enabling opportunities in more ways than one; recent program graduate Sandra Hart flew to Sydney in early 2023 to participate in Short Black Opera's 'One Day in January' project. This opportunity arose when Sandra's enthusiasm and talent was noticed by Short Black Opera Artistic Director, Deborah Cheetham Frailon AO. WASO is thrilled to see our collaboration and working relationships open this door for Sandra. The connection may have been facilitated through Crescendo, but it was Sandra's willingness to embrace the experience that showcases what can happen when ability is matched with opportunity.

WASO's 2024 Education Program will be released on Monday 9 October.

SMALL ENSEMBLE, MIGHTY IMPACT

The concerts you see in this brochure are only the tip of the iceberg when it comes to sharing music with our community. When we're not performing on the mainstage or providing the soundtrack to ballets and opera productions, our musicians are on the road, sharing music in every corner of our community.

The WASO in Schools program takes small ensembles into low socio-economic schools in the outer suburbs of Perth, providing a free opportunity for students to hear live orchestral music, often for the first time. Since the program started in 2021, we have reached over 10,000 students, and counting.

Following full orchestral performances in regional areas, WASO on the Road visits local schools and community centres, the musicians often clocking up serious mileage as they travel across each region. Have-a-go sessions and in-depth Q&A's ensure that students have the opportunity to participate in the music making.

Our Connect program provides a relaxed chamber concert and rehearsal viewing experience at Perth Concert Hall for people living with disabilities and their carers. These concerts provide a safe and supportive environment to enable participants to experience the magic of our orchestra and express their joy in the moment.

Our small ensembles also reach the most vulnerable in our community, with regular visits to the Perth Children's Hospital through our Hospital Orchestra Project (HOP) and aged care facilities around Perth through our Music For The Ages and WASO in the Community programs. From popular classics, to jazz and show tunes, our musicians design intimate concert experiences that allow a moment of respite, summarised beautifully by a staff member at a RAAFA Aged Care Centre:

"The joy that your music brought our residents was truly heartwarming. Your dedication to bringing the gift of music to the elderly is commendable and makes a significant difference to their lives."

We gratefully acknowledge the philanthropic donors, corporate community, and Trusts and Foundations who generously support Crescendo, with special thanks to lead partner The Balnaves Foundation. We would also like to acknowledge our Tertiary Education partner UWA.

EMERGING TALENTS

Throughout each year, WASO creates and delivers programs to engage local talent and build sector capacity, securing a bright future for the next generation of Australian musicians.

WASO is excited to continue working alongside the other major Australian Orchestras, including the Adelaide, Melbourne, Queensland, Sydney and Tasmanian Symphony Orchestras and Orchestra Victoria in 2024, as part of the Australian Conducting Academy. The Academy is led by Johannes Fritsch, Principal Guest Conductor of the Queensland and Tasmanian Symphony Orchestras. The two-year program provides aspiring conductors from Australia and New Zealand the opportunity to learn from experienced orchestral leaders and conductors including WASO's Principal Conductor and Artistic Adviser Asher Fisch.

The WASO Assistant Conductor is an esteemed position, offering the opportunity to be mentored by Principal Conductor Asher Fisch and other renowned guest conductors throughout the season. Jen Winley was WASO's 2022-2023 Assistant Conductor, first conducting WASO in the 2020 Lotterywest Christmas Spectacular. Jen has since conducted 20 concerts with WASO, including various mainstage concerts, Family, Education and Outreach projects, regional tours, contemporary and recording projects, as well as making her debut as conductor with WA Opera, QSO and MSO. She makes her MACA Classics series debut in 2024 with Scheherazade on Friday 24 May (p.18).

The Australian Conducting Academy is supported by The Ian Potter Foundation. Jen Winley is supported by the Simon Lee Foundation.

CREATING NEW MUSIC FOR THE MAINSTAGE

WASO's ongoing commitment to innovation and artistic exploration sees the Orchestra showcase a rich line-up of world premieres and emerging talents every year. WASO continues to bring new music into the orchestral canon, with seven concerts in the 2024 season featuring world premieres.

The Coming Dawn by Noongar violist, conductor and composer Aaron Wyatt opens the 2024 season (p.13). Originally written for string quartet, didgeridoo and vibraphone, the work will be expanded in this West Australian premiere.

Outi Tarkiainen's The Ring of Fire and Love makes its Australian debut (p.18), and world premieres from Sydney composer Holly Harrison (p.15) and WASO Composer in Residence Olivia Davies (p.19) also feature on the mainstage. These performances recognise WASO's commitment to expanding the catalogue of music by women composers, and building local and national artistic talent.

First Nations Creative Collaborations & Composition Project are supported by the Bendat Family Foundation. Olivia Davies is supported by Prue Ashurst. Holly Harrison's Saxophone Concerto, James Ledger's The Last Thing and Lachlan Skipworth's Flute Concerto commissioned for WASO by Geoff Stearn.

New works from Perth composers James Ledger (p.17) and Lachlan Skipworth (p.14) round out the mainstage premieres for the season. For previous WASO Composer in Residence Lachlan Skipworth, this will mark his second commission from WASO in as many years. Having extensively studied the Japanese shakuhachi/bamboo flute, his new concerto for WASO Principal Flute Andrew Nicholson will be an inspired contribution to the woodwind repertoire.

WASO's Composition Project offers young and emerging West Australian composers the opportunity to develop their skills in a professional environment. Each year, the next generation of composers participate in lessons, workshops and rehearsals to craft a new work for 14-piece chamber ensemble. Winner of Composition Project 2023, Nicholas Kyriakakis, will compose a new work for Classic Adventures: Wild Animals (p.31) in 2024. This prize opens a significant door for early-career composers annually, granting access to a full symphony orchestra for their next composition.

SHARE IN THE JOY OF MUSIC, BE PART OF WASO

For as long as West Australian Symphony Orchestra has been in existence so too has the rich tradition of philanthropy.

There has been a myriad of memorable moments over the years where our supporters have come together to make very special things happen. Diverse repertoire, artistic excellence, accessible and inclusive community engagement and a regional touring footprint have all been made possible by a solid foundation built by generations of music lovers. For those who generously give to us year upon year, thank you for your incredible support.

For those considering a gift with your 2024 subscription, we look forward to welcoming you to the WASO family and our exciting season ahead.

Everyone deserves the magic of live music

Concerts & Performances – Bringing joy through music

The support of our donor family empowers us to deliver exceptional performances and world-class musicianship. From majestic symphonies to thrilling films and contemporary collaborations, each season brings you an exciting, varied program and the very best guest artists for unforgettable performances.

Education – Igniting the next generation

Music education is essential. Incorporating music into a child's development increases socialisation and language, improves cognitive skills and boosts confidence. We are committed to inspiring and nurturing the next generation of Australian artists, and ensuring music education is available for all.

Crescendo – Transforming lives through music

Crescendo is a free music education program providing music lessons to over 400 students from Pre-Primary to Year 6 in two schools in Kwinana. Music education is proven to lift confidence, strengthen resilience, and increase emotional and social wellbeing. Through Crescendo, we are transforming young lives and inspiring a lifelong love of music in the next generations.

Community – Making music accessible

Music can create and strengthen a community. Through our outreach programs we bring the joy of music to those who may not be able to access a live orchestral performance, from children in hospital to adults in care. We are passionate about giving everyone the opportunity to hear, participate in and be moved by the joy and power embedded in music.

Legacy – Give the gift of a lifetime

If WASO has been part of your life journey, we warmly invite you to consider a bequest in your will, preserving the magic of music for future generations and enriching lives for many years to come. The Symphony Circle acknowledges those who have made this commitment to our artform and engages you with our vision, which is now part of your legacy.

Duet – Partner with a musician

A remarkable act of giving, Duet gives you the opportunity to partner with a musician by directly supporting their Chair. These gifts increase our ability to direct funds towards outreach experiences and performances, while offering you the chance to forge a close relationship with a musician throughout their creative pursuit. Duet partners are vital in our artistic vision to enrich lives through music.

OUR SUPPORTERS

We value and congratulate our wonderful giving community. You are making a difference to what you see on stage - your commitment is a source of constant inspiration for us. We are proud to acknowledge our extended family, many of whom give to multiple areas and some who wish to remain unnamed. Thank you.

SUPPORT US

West Australian Symphony Orchestra is a not-for-profit charity. It is the overwhelming generosity of our donors that enables us to continue to enrich lives both on stage and off through the power of music.

Support us

If you are interested in deepening your impact, we invite you to connect with us, online or in person.

Thank you for your consideration.
